Party Platform Call-Out

Strong Families

Strong families are the bedrock of all successful societies. In America, we often hear glowing talk about "family values," but the reality is that our country is among the least family-friendly in the world. For example, the United States is one of only three countries, the others being Oman and Papua New Guinea, that offer no paid maternity leave. Most developed countries also mandate some paid paternity leave as well, whereas the U.S. offers none. Developed countries also offer universal affordable child care to its citizens, and have done so for decades, whereas in the United States families struggle to pay thousands of dollars a year just to make sure kids are safe while parents are at work. In today's globalized economy, where families with two full-time working parents prevail, this is no longer acceptable.

October Outreach

Election day is November 6! As we are still growing in Utah and do not yet have ballot access here, we do not have candidates yet. But the United Utah Party has very similar values to our party and have several candidates running in Utah. We encourage you to take a close look at their stances and consider voting for them.

You can see the full list of their candidates here:
unitedutah.org/candidates_2018

Of particular note, we are excited to see two United Utah candidates running for federal positions:

Eric Eliason
U.S. House District 1

Tim Zeidner
U.S. House District 3

Please also come join us at our action meetings to learn more or find ways to volunteer!
